THE LAW SCHOOL. — The registration in the School for the last twelve years is shown in the following table. For eleven years the figures are from records dated November 15, but for the current year the figures were made up on October 30. At this time last year the total number of students in the school was 60. At present they number 874. This is the largest enrollment in the history of the school, the largest registration heretofore being 857 during the year 1916-17. The first-year class exceeds by more than one hundred the first-year class of that year.

In the whole school one hundred and fifty-five different colleges are represented.

The following table shows the geographical source from which the twelve successive first-year classes have been drawn:
